Token: A Journal of English Linguistics is an open-access journal which focuses on English linguistics in a broad sense: it accepts both diachronic and synchronic work, grammatical as well as lexical studies. Token publishes original research papers, and favors empirical, corpus-based research.

The journal is listed in EBSCO (Academic Search Ultimate), the European Reference Index for the Humanities and the Social Sciences (ERIH PLUS), the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ), and the MLA Directory of Periodicals. Moreover, it has been accepted for inclusion in SCOPUS: the review by the Scopus Content Selection & Advisory Board is now complete and Token has received the following evaluative comments:

“The journal consistently includes articles that are scientifically sound and relevant to an international academic or professional audience in this field.”

“The articles are consistently of high academic quality, consistent with the journal’s stated aims.”

Finally, Token has been placed in the top rank of A-class scientific journals by the Italian Ministerial Agency for the Assessment of Research and University Teaching and Management (ANVUR) and it is included in the Norwegian Register for Scientific Journals, Series and Publishers.

Jan Kochanowski University Press publishes Token once annually, and all submissions are double-blind peer-reviewed.

Publication of a new volume is planned for the fall every year, so the due date for individual submissions is 1 March. Contributors wishing to offer special issues or special sections within issues should contact the Editors by 15 January outlining the topic(s) they wish to address and providing a preliminary table of contents (with the names and affiliations of the prospective contributors). Submissions should be prepared according to the style sheet and article template available at token.ujk.edu.pl/submit and sent to token.journal@gmail.com as Word documents. The attachment should not contain the author’s name and affiliation but should be accompanied by an email including such personal information.

The full text of the articles published in earlier issues can be accessed at token.ujk.edu.pl/volumes.
